SENT TO: Embassy BONN PRIORITY 2222

Re Embassy Tel 2494. Request Embassy convey following to arrived from the Secretary.

Begin text. QUOTE Dear Mr. Vice Chancellor:

During the last several months I have had very much in mind your continuing interest to in a visit to Washington during which we to discuss current international economic problems which concern both our governments. In trying to suggest a time which would offer the best opportunity for fruitful discussions, I have talked with Secretary Andersen and we both find that the second half of March would be most suitable for us. If that I shall ask Amb. Bruce to discuss with you what would be convenient for you, which days you could plan to be in Washington. Sincerely yours, John Foster Dulles UNQUOTE

End text.

Subjects listed ref tel are acceptable to Department and Treasury as basis three or four day visit although they may be modified in course making out detailed schedule. Department visualizes low-key Washington-Bonn press release as soon as dates are agreed.

FII Since Secretary will not return from SINGO trip until March 18, we suggest Embassy indicate that week of March 17-22 might be best period for Erhard even though would overlap slightly with Strauss visit to the US. End FII.

Assume there is no misunderstanding on part German as to payment costs this type visit, i.e. visitor pays all expenses except, of course, any social occasions arranged by US Government.
